Churchill, Aides, To Be Heard Next Week--Attlee Follows Socialist Course

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

LONDON, Jan. 18—(A)—Prime Minister Attlee's labor party today promised to keep Britain on its socialist course with new nationalization of industry and continued rationing and price controls—if laborites retain power in the Feb.

vative party, which is bidding for the Kremlin opposes. reinstatement on the promise of steering the country out of socialist waters back to free enterprise.

The laborites said their fight was directly against the conservatives and against the "unemployment, strife and economic confusion which would inevitably result from the conservative wish to 'let things rip'."

Thus the party in power had fired the opening big gun in what promises to be one of the most crucial political battles in recent British history.

The conservatives' big blast is expected next week with the issuance of a similar policy manifesto. Churchill and his "shadow cabinet"-which would become the real cabinet if the tories win-met at his London house yesterday to polish it up.

Conservative reaction to the labor manifesto was typified by Lord Rothermere's London Daily Mail, which called it a "blank check on nationalization."

The laborites have promised to continue their socialist program, already well on its way with nationalization of major industries in the five postwar years of labor

To consolidate state ownership and round out the picture of socialism aims, the party now promises to take over the cement industry, sugar refining, water works, meat slaughtering, and cold storage plants. It also said it would keep ah eye on certain portions of the chemical industry and take them over if it were in the national interest to do so.

The manifesto, titled "let us win through together" followed closely a policy statement called "labor believes in Britain" issued last stolen registration plates, head-April before the labor party's annual conference.

One exception was its promises on industrial insurance, which last spring the laborites had marked for state control. The manifesto proposes to 'muies, putting them under ownership of policy-holders.

Also ear-marked for government ownership was "good food-producing land not fully used" where private farmers were judged not capable of putting it to work.

The party gave no promise of immediately easing the austerity and controls Britons have known since before the end of the war. "Only by price control and rationing can fair shares of scarce goods be insured," the manifesto "Only control over capital investment, distribution of industry, industrial building and foreign exchange can enable us to overcome the dollar shortage and build up a permanently thriving national economy."

"Yet many tories still cry 'scrap controls'," the manifesto added.

> TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 18-(A) -The Nationalist Chinese commander of Hainan island reported tonight that Chiang Kai-shek's airforce and navy had made the impending Red invasion of the big sland impossible.

The Hainan ground commander said the two Nationalist services had sunk more than 2,000 invasion craft (mostly junka) massed by the Reds on Liuchow peninsula opposite Hainan.

He claimed his own forces were opping up the remainder of some 17,000 Communist guerrillas who have been in control of central and the western portion of the big south China island.

The Hainan commander, Gen. Hsuch Yuch, refugee governor of Kwangtung province, said the mopping up of the guerrillas would be completed shortly. Many of the Reds have been on the island since the war with Japan.

Hsueh, known as the Little Tiger, won fame against Japanese soldiers in the Hunan campaign. The American staff in China rated him as one of the best generals in the Chinese army.

Meanwhile the Nationalist government proclaimed that Samah, on the south Hainan coast, was open to trade. Samah, also known as Snya and Yulin, is the site of the biggest airbase on Hainan. It was built by the Japanese.

The Nationalist defense ministry admitted the loss of Wenshan, a town in Yunnan province on the mainland some 40 miles from the Indo-China border. The Communist troops of Red Gen. Li Piao broke through to take Wenshan.
